THE JEWISH AGENCY FOR ISRAEL הסוכנות היהודית לארץ ישראל

ELEVATION

Career

Professional Aliyah Program
Project Manager
Ibim | 2027

Why Join the Program?

The program offers new Olim a structured pathway to integrate into Israel's high-tech workforce, focusing on project management—a highly sought-after profession in the Israeli job market.

What does the program include?

- Subsidized Housing: Apartments Spacious apartments in Ibim aliyah village
- Hebrew Ulpan: Five months of intensive Hebrew study, five days a week, to improve language skills.
- Professional-Technological Training by organization Elevation Education Ltd: - 162 hours, about 6 months.
- Practical Training Learn the core principles of project management, from conceptualization to planning, execution, and monitoring. The training will prepare participants for project management roles in high-tech industries and major Israeli companies.
- Job Placement Support: Graduates will receive up to six months of career counseling, employment preparation workshops, and active placement assistance after completing the program.

Who is eligible?

- Eligible for Aliya, Olim (including olim already living in Israel), participants of Masa programs from all countries.
- Candidates aged 21–40 with a completed high school diploma or relevant academic degree (or equivalent professional experience).
- High level of English is required; additional languages are an advantage.
- Candidates with excellent interpersonal skills, strong analytical abilities, and motivation to work in project management.

Costs and Conditions

- Participants will live in the absorption center of Jewish Agency in Ibim aliyah village, with monthly costs for apartments.
- Family Apartment - 3-bedroom ₪1000/month (not including utilities).
- Shared Apartment – 500 NIS\month per person (3 individuals per apartment, not including utilities)
- Housing in new or renovated apartments in a pastoral rural area.
- Convenient transportation (5 minutes by car to the city of Sderot, 50 minutes by train to Tel Aviv).
- The region offers many educational institutions for children of all ages (including public, religious, and others).

Program Timeline

- Hebrew Ulpan: January 2027 – June 2027
- Professional Training: January 2027 – June 2027
- Job Placement Support: from July 2027

What does it mean to be a Project Manager ?

- Planning and executing projects from inception to completion
- Coordinating between teams and managing timelines, budgets, and deliverables
- Developing measurable goals and tracking progress to ensure success
- Solving problems and adapting strategies as needed to achieve objectives
- The professional training will be conducted in English

About Elevation Education

Elevation Education is Israel's leading company for innovative training solutions. For over a decade, Elevation has developed and managed training academies for tech giants like Google, AWS, and Monday, as well as government initiatives and NGOs. The company specializes in empowering underrepresented populations, including Olim, women, and communities from Israel's geographic and social periphery.

Join the new generation of Project Management professionals in Israel!

For applications and additional information:
Raisak@jafi.org

Aliyapp

To learn more about Aliyah Programs with Employment Orientation, visit our official page on Aliyapp.